Invitation to Bid

Invitation for Technical and Commercial Bids for the Engineering Procurement and Construction (EPC) of a 145,000 cubic meters of clean bulk liquid petroleum products storage and jetty facilities in Lagos East Atlantic Coast (Lekki Axis)

In riding the wave of a new dawn in Nigeria and from our company's strong belief that innovation will determine the success of taking Nigeria to the next level of economic development, West Atlantic Petroleum and Shipping Company Limited (WAPSCO) is pioneering the installation of a Petroleum Products Storage Depot and an Open Sea Jetty at Okunlape village, Lekki LCDA, Lagos State.

In realising this goal, WAPSCO hereby invite local and international EPC companies to formally submit an Expression of Interest followed by a short-listing and subsequently the Technical and Commercial (priced & unpriced) bids for consideration and eventual award of contract.

WAPSCO intends to construct A Storage Depot and Open Sea Jetty for the unloading of 38,000 DWT (Max) petroleum products vessels and loading 5,000 DWT (Min.) with all relevant facilities for loading and unloading white products from and to the new Depot to be located onshore in the Jetty near vicinity.

The Depot is comprised of 3 X 27,000 m³ holding tanks, 4 X 16,000 m³ loading tanks, 10 loading gantries and all other necessary ancillary facilities and utilities to run an efficient modern petroleum products distribution terminal. In addition to the storage and loading facilities is the civil works, off sites and buildings, comprising; offices/administration, operation and maintenance buildings, operator shelters and construction of a circa 2 kilometer access and internal roads for smooth operation of the terminal.
