

(Community HIV Interventions Research in Nigeria)

Request for Proposal

RFP: Evaluation of effectiveness of treatment adherence and community interventions in Nigeria

Issue date: 18th February, 2014

Closing date: 4th March, 2014

ARFH, a principal recipient to the Global Fund round 9 HIV grant in collaboration with UNAIDS, NACA and SFH is hereby seeking for qualified research consultants (Epidemiologist and Health economist) or organizations to conduct a mixed methodology research involving assessment of effectiveness of HIV treatment adherence and community based interventions and their cost effectiveness with respect to HIV/AIDS and Tuberculosis services in Nigeria.

Interested candidates who wish to respond to this solicitation should please visit: <http://arfh-ng.org/docs/rfphivcommunity2014.pdf> to download the RFP. Further clarifications and questions should be sent to communityeval@arfh-ng.org . Please include subject line in your e-mail as “Community HIV interventions research in Nigeria”.