Addendum:

Expression of Interest for Private Sector Participation in Development of New Facilities

This is an addendum to the recently published “Invitation for Expression of Interest for Construction of New Facilities” which was advertised in the newspapers on the 18th of March 2016. This addendum serves to provide additional information and replace the previous advert.

(1) Background

Lagos State University (LASU) was established in 1983 by the enabling Law of Lagos State of Nigeria, for the advancement of learning and establishment of academic excellence. The University caters for a population of over 61,000 students enrolled for full-time and part-time programmes. The university also offers courses at Diploma, Undergraduate and Postgraduate levels within its campuses located at Ojo, Agege and Epe in Lagos State.

The University campuses currently have inadequate facilities and supporting infrastructure to cater to the existing student population as well as staff, and visitors of the university.

(2) Invitation for Expression of Interest

In a bid to upgrade its facilities, the Lagos State University now invites applications from competent, reputable and qualified private sector companies to be pre-qualified to bid for the development of new facilities across various campuses, under a public private partnership arrangement. Some of the facilities to be developed include but are not limited to the following:

- (A) Hostels at Ojo Campus
- (B) Filling Stations at Ojo and Epe
- (C) Event Centers at Ojo, Agege and Epe
- (D) Shopping/Business malls at Ojo
- (E) Guest Houses / Chalet and Conference Center at Ojo
- (F) Guest Houses/Chalet at Epe

(G) Parking Lot at Ojo

(H) Staff Recreational Center at Ojo and Epe
