(1) This Invitation for Bids follows the General Procurement Notice for this Project that appeared in Development Business; issue no WB3947-808/11 of 14 September, 2011.

The Government of Nigeria has received a credit from the International Development Association (IDA) towards the cost of the Lagos Eko Secondary Education Project and it intends to apply part of the proceeds of this credit to payments under the Contract for the Procurement of 2,000 Units of Dedicated Chromebooks.

The Lagos Eko Project is in the process of partnership with Google Education with the objective of introducing novel ideas to improve teaching content and pedagogy in the public secondary schools. Following this, the proposed Chromebooks are intended to be used as support for teachers to facilitate modern teaching techniques and enhance teachers' ICT skills. Major intended outcomes are learners' centered approach to teaching and improved teachers' effectiveness amongst public school teachers.

(2) The Lagos Eko Project now invites sealed bids from eligible and qualified bidders for the Procurement of 2,000 units Chromebooks. Details are as follows:

Description	Quantity	Delivery Period	Bid Security
Procurement of Dedicated Chromebook installed with a Google Console pre-installed and all other accessories	2,000 units	30 days
Repair, maintenance and technical support for 1 (One) year	—	1 (One) year	At least 2% of Bid price

(3) Bidding will be conducted using the National Competitive Bidding (NCB) procedures specified in the World Bank's Guidelines: Procurement under IBRD Loans and IDA Credits, edition of May 2006 (revised 2010), and is open to all Bidders eligible as defined in these Guidelines, that meet the following minimum qualification criteria:

- Documentary evidence of previous supply (sale) and delivery of similar gadget and quantity required within the last three years.
